An efficient approach for figuring out a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already bought an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion by way of price. Do this by creating a sales web page for the brand new book, but don't embrace a price on that page. Instead, add various hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Be sure that your sales copy is exactly the same on every page, and consists of your promoting-deal with sentence. Then determine for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum value is.

Finally, for those who've written a guide that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your guide will bring in both site visitors and profits. So be sure you write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what drawback your e-book solves and what the benefits of your 1891 e-book might be to the purchasers who purchase it.
